

How to Apply ?

The application will be confirmed if the following process is completed.

Candidate will have to register on website by Submitting his Email id. Candidate will receive mail for verification of Email id. Candidate will have to complete registration process by Clicking on the link received through verification mail. Candidate will be asked to provide password when he clicks the link, which the candidate have to remember until all the processes being completed. After Confirming the password , window for filling of form will open up. Candidate will be asked to Download Challan in new window on successfully Completing the form and Clicking on the “Save Button”. After downloading the Challan, Open category Candidate will have to deposit the application fees of Rs. 200 at the nearest Branch of Dena Bank. Candidates like SC, ST, SEBC and EBC category are exempted from paying the fees by showing necessary documents. Bank will provide two copies of Challan to the candidate in which bank will have mentioned the transaction ID and date of deposit. Candidate has to keep candidate Challan copy until the recruitment process get completed. Candidate has produce office Challan copy whenever asked by KCG. Candidate will have to provide email id, password, transaction ID and Date of Deposit on the web site www.cheguj.com after 25 hours from depositing the application fees in bank, so the message of “The application of candidate is confirmed” will be displayed on the screen. If this message is not displayed, the process of Application will not be completed. Candidate can take print out of application only after the confirmation of application. Without confirmation of application, candidate cannot take print out of application at any stage.